COPYWRITER · BRAND VOICE · CONTENT STRATEGY

New York and Remote · hello@ayannacrawford.com · 843.364.4635 · ayannacrawford.com

Copywriter, storyteller, and brand voice specialist. I build the way a company talks to its audience and keep the story and tone consistent everywhere it shows up, from web and product copy to email campaigns and founder voice. I turn complex, technical products into clear language people actually trust. An earlier career in startup operations and recruiting means I know how to work inside a company, not just write for one.

EXPERIENCE

Staff Writer, Sleep, Beauty & Personal Care

NYT Wirecutter · Aug 2022 to Present

- Turn dense product testing and technical jargon into clear, trustworthy copy that helps millions of readers choose with confidence.
- Write recommendation content that regularly drives featured products to sell out.
- Pitch and shoot social video that lifts click-through on my guides. The most recent video drew 4.5K+ clicks on Instagram, one of the 20 most-clicked posts in Wirecutter's history on the platform.
- Find and run collaborations with the New York Times newsroom. A joint post with NYT Cooking on Instagram reached 577K views.
- Build and maintain working relationships with expert sources and PR contacts for testing and reporting.
- Hold a consistent voice inside strict editorial standards, partnering with editors, designers, and photographers to ship polished work on deadline.

Copywriting & Content Consultant, Marketing & Brand Voice

Wagmo · Feb 2021 to Feb 2023

Venture-backed insurtech

- Owned the brand voice across every surface, including email, SMS, social, web, and partner pitch decks, and built the voice and tone consistency that carried the brand's story.
- Rewrote and edited lifecycle email and SMS for tone, flow, and clarity, tightening the message at every touchpoint. Site traffic rose 28 percent and open rates 33 percent.
- Reviewed and refined all external copy for prospective business partners.

Content Manager & Writer, CEO Branding

Christie Horvath, CEO of Wagmo · Sept 2021 to Present

- Ghostwrite the founder's voice for thought leadership published in Medium and Forbes EQ.
- Grew the CEO's Twitter and LinkedIn engagement by 10 percent with pithy, human commentary.
- Built the PR pitch framing the founder's story for media outlets.

Managing Editor

Sad Girls Club · Jan 2020 to Jan 2022

Mental health platform

- Built and ran the editorial calendar for a staff of 10 contributing writers, set firm deadlines, and shipped every piece on time.
- Reviewed and assigned pitches, then supported writers through reporting and drafting.
- Edited every piece for style, clarity, and tone against the brand's voice and ethos before publishing.
- Wrote original essays and thoroughly reported features for the platform.

Internal Recruiter & Employee Experience Manager

KeyMe · Dec 2018 to Nov 2019

- Partnered with hiring managers and department heads across a 200-person company to define role requirements and team fit.
- Wrote, posted, and managed the job descriptions for every open role.
- Sourced and screened all candidates and ran multi-round interview loops with teams and hiring managers.
- Managed offers, supported new-hire onboarding, and coordinated visa documentation with the legal team.
- Built company culture through internal programming, the employee referral program, and representing the company at career events.

Operations Manager

Descartes Labs · Apr 2017 to Jul 2018

- Ran day-to-day operations for two on-site and three remote offices, including renovations, build-outs, space planning, and equipment repairs.
- Main point of contact for building landlords, cleaning crews, IT support, and software and service vendors.
- Tracked operating budgets, monitored expenses, and processed vendor invoices. Cut operational bottlenecks across departments.
- Onboarded new hires, ran internal communications channels, organized company events, and kept the company compliant with health and safety regulations.

Courier Manager

Shyp · Aug 2015 to Apr 2017

- Hired, onboarded, and managed 25 remote and on-site employees with a 90 percent retention rate.
- Modeled volume against demand to inform scheduling and built a lean staffing model for maximum efficiency.
- Worked cross-functionally with UX, engineering, product marketing, finance, and growth to improve both the courier and customer experience.
- Identified and escalated platform bugs, and owned KPI tracking, logistics planning, and quality control, with a steady focus on culture, customer experience, and training.

Logistics & Support Manager

WeDeliver · Mar 2014 to Apr 2015

- Designed and optimized delivery routes to cut fuel costs and delivery times.
- Oversaw dispatch and tracking to hit daily delivery quotas, and handled emergency troubleshooting from delayed deliveries to platform errors.
- Fed regular feedback to engineers to improve platform performance.
- Supervised, scheduled, and trained drivers and support staff, and monitored on-time delivery rates and return costs.
